Our Location

Kings Hall College is a new and upcoming English language college based in the centre of Manchester, only a minute's walk from Piccadilly Gardens, the beating heart of the city.

A Word from our CEO & Academic Director

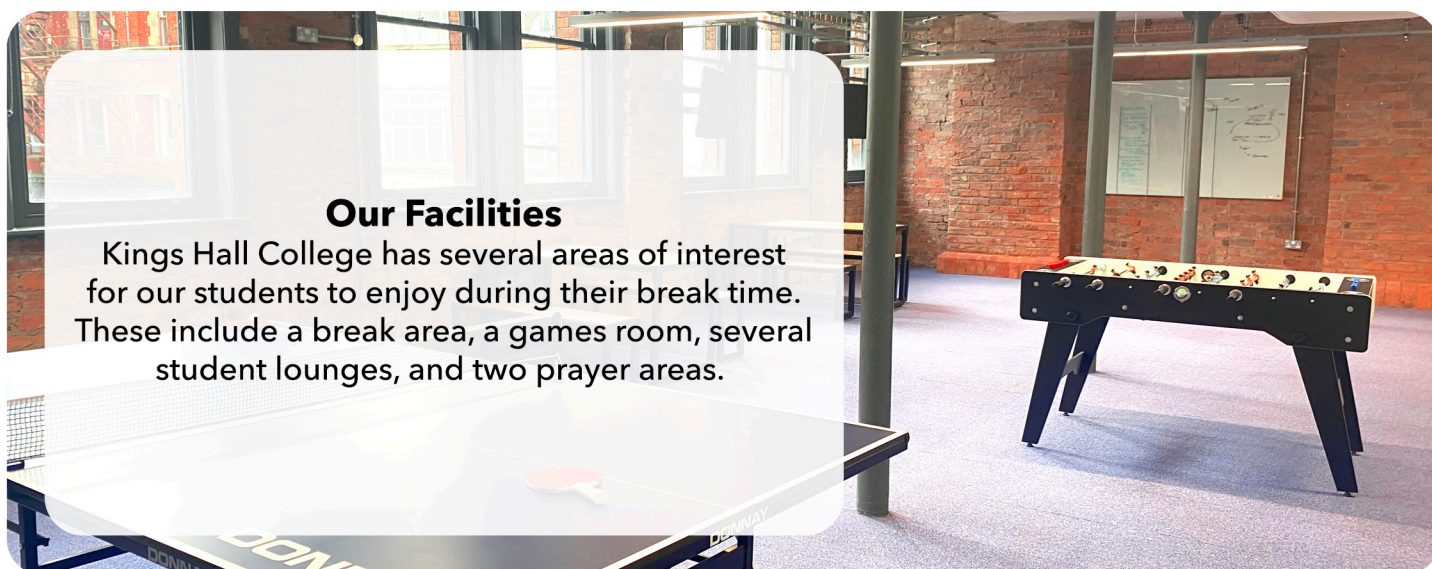

"This institution introduces a creative and innovative concept to the English language learning industry, blending a deep appreciation for British history and culture with modern education. We look forward to welcoming our students to this exceptional learning environment."

Imad Ahmed
CEO

Kings Hall College offers a well-rounded curriculum designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills needed for success in their chosen field. Students benefit from experienced teaching staff who bring both academic expertise and real-world insights into the classroom.

Sarah Shinnick
Academic Director

Our Facilities

Kings Hall College has several areas of interest for our students to enjoy during their break time. These include a break area, a games room, several student lounges, and two prayer areas.
